

Independent Learning Task Assignment Title: A case study of an African Country.

Learning Objectives: Students will be able to locate a chosen country in Africa and know the physical and human characteristics of this country.

Final due date:

Assignment	B	D	S	P
1) Information about your chosen country/ Due Date:	Chose a country in Africa and list 8 key facts about this country – capital city, size of the country, population.	Download a blank map of Africa and shade in your country. Write a description of the location of your country. – eg capital city, size, population, oceans/seas, what countries are surrounding it. Is it landlocked? Describe whether your country is an LEDC/NIC/ MEDC using evidence to support this.	Write a detailed description of your country. Don't just provide a list – analyse the information e.g.: when you mention the size is that a big or small country? How does the population compare to the size? Explain whether the country is an LEDC/NIC/MEDC & use a range of evidence to support this?	Write a comparison between your chosen country and the UK. Suggest which country is the most developed and why.
2) What is the climate like? Due Date:	Write a description of when it is hottest and coldest, and when there is the most and least rainfall.	Find a climate graph for your country and write a paragraph to describe what it shows. When is it hottest and coldest? Does your country have seasons?	Explain why your country has the climate that it has e.g. latitude, distance from sea etc.	Write a detailed comparison of the climate in your chosen country and the UK.
3) What is the physical Geography? Due Date:	On an outline map of your chosen country label on its physical features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mountain ranges • Surrounding coasts • Volcanoes • Rivers • Vegetation 	Write a detailed description of the physical features found in your chosen country	Compare the physical features of your chosen country and the UK	Explain the ways in which humans can impact the physical features in your chosen country.
4) What is the human Geography? Due Date:	On an outline map of your country label on its human features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cities • tourist attractions and leisure facilities • famous buildings and landmarks • sporting events • transport networks 	Write a detailed description of the human features found in your chosen country.. Describe how the level of development in your country link to the amount of human features.	Compare the human features of your chosen country and the UK	Explain the environmental impacts of some of the human features found within your chosen country.

